What Sets Us Apart

- The right size to support service level.
- Our employees set the right culture, which has allowed for long tenure with the company.
- We see ourselves as an "extension" of your sales force, sharing the right values.
- If you are new to the Canadian Market or already on the shelf and looking for new direction... A.S. May can be there for you.
- We can provide a turn-key entry into the Canadian Market
- Collaboration - we are all part of the process sharing ideas, change of strategy, or a new product launch with a common goal.

About A.S. May

Outstanding food industry specialists with Canadian National coverage across all Retail Channels.

We develop deliberate and meaningful Strategic Partnerships with high level focus on long-term sustainable relationships.

What We Do

Our highly dedicated sales professionals have the expertise and skill set to get your products on shelf.

Our role is to represent your products to our retail customers to build the category while maintaining brand growth.

We cultivate strong partnerships, building one brand, one product... one store shelf at a time.
